Lettice and Lovage

A COMEDY BY PETER SHAFFER
Directed by Jan Francies

Lettice Duffet, an extravagantly and flamboyantly extroverted woman with an active imagination gives tours in the dullest of British houses. Her incredulous embellishments amuse her and the tourists which lead to a conflict with Lotte, her employer. They gradually forge an alliance in this charming and hilarious Tony Award winning play.

Rapture

A SERIO-COMEDY BY JOANNA MURRAY-SMITH
Directed by Heather Roberts

Six long-time friends celebrate the homecoming of two of their group who had gone away after a fire destroyed all of their possessions. They return having undergone a spiritual epiphany. This thoughtful, humorous and entertaining play investigates what happens when cynicism is confronted by faith.

MOLIÈRE'S THE HYPOCHONDRIAC

A NEW VERSION BY RICHARD BEAN
Directed by Harvey Levkoe

A scathingly funny lampoon on both hypochondria and the quack medical profession based on Molière's "Imaginary Invalid". Elaborate trickery manages to pile confusion upon hilarious confusion as Argan, so obsessed by his own imaginary ailments, can no longer control his household or the medics he employs.
